PURCHASING A GOOD STALLION.

The horse business in Malheur County has been increasing at such a rapid rate that the stallion salesmen have been especially attracted to this locality this season. In buying a stallion it is always advisable to buy Oregon raised stallions, whenever possible. These stallions can be bought direct from the breeders. They are all acclimated to Oregon conditions and can always be purchased at a reasonable price. Before buying a stallion it is well to have him examined by the stallion inspector and have his pedigree checked by the State Stallion Registration Board so that there is no doubt but that a license to stand for public service can be obtained. If the stallion is purchased at a high price and cannot obtain a license to stand for public service it is at a considerable loss to the purchaser and priced stallion. Any information where a good horse is expected at a loss to the community. The state law requires the Stallion Registration Board to refuse license to stallions that become unsound before six years of age. Fees cannot be collected for unlicensed stallions, so it is advisable to consider all of these points before purchasing a high-priced stallion. Any information will be gladly furnished by Dr. A. G. Moore of Ontario or by the Stallion Registration Board at Corvallis, Oregon.

FOOD CONTROL BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

Measure as Passed Contains
Far-Reaching Prohibition Provisions.

Washington. — The administration food control bill, giving the president broad authority to control the distribution of food, feed and fuel for war purposes and appropriating $152,500,000 for its enforcement and administration, was passed by the house after far-reaching prohibition provisions had been written into it.

The vote was 355 to five. Representatives McLemore, Slayden and Young, of Texas, democrats, and Meeker, Missouri, and Ward, New York, republicans, voting in the negative.

The prohibition amendment, according to statements of house members, will reduce the government revenues by more than $300,000,000 a year.

The prohibition amendment in the bill will make the United States "dry" during the war, if the measure goes through the senate as passed by the house. It forbids the manufacture of any food materials into liquor, thus knocking out beer and light wines as well as stronger spirits. The Webb amendment gives the president power to make the nation practically "bone dry" by seizing all intoxicants in the nation and redistilling them to get alcohol for industrial use.

The bill now goes to the senate, where it probably will be substituted this week for a similar measure already under consideration. Leaders hope to get the measure to conference by July 1.

While the senate is occupied by the control bill, the house will proceed with the rivers and harbors bill, to be followed by the administration measure authorizing the president to direct priority in railroad shipments, which has passed the senate.

RUSSIANS OPPOSE SEPARATE PEACE

Washington.—Ambassador Bakhmeteff, head of the Russian mission, emphatically declared in an address before congress, assembled in the hall of the house, that the Russian people themselves oppose a separate peace with Germany.

The ambassador's declaration came at the end of the most remarkable and demonstrative reception yet given any of the foreign missions in either house of congress. Shouts and cheers came from floor and galleries. Members of congress who on previous visits of missions have applauded or remained quietly in their seats, cheered loudly.

The ambassador added: "Rumors of a separate peace are without foundation in fact. Russia's endeavor is for a lasting peace between democratic nations. Triumph of the German autocracy would render such peace impossible. Russia will not fail to be a worthy partner in the League of Honor."

TO DRAFT MEN AT CAPITAL

Conscription Rules Designate Washington as Place.

Washington.—Drafting of 625,000 men for the national army will be conducted entirely in Washington, according to the conscription regulations approved by the president.

In the United States there are approximately 4000 registration districts. In each there is a separate series of registration numbers, beginning with number one.

When the drawings begin, probably early in July, a board in Washington will select a number through the jury wheel or other lottery system.

The number will be telegraphed to each registration district and all the men on the registration lists who have that number will be called.

It will be up to each man individually to ascertain whether he is selected. He will not be required to report until a general summons is issued for all drafted men to come forward for examination.

THE UNIVERSAL INSTRUMENT

Thirty years ago the telephone was a luxury. Today, through personal initiative and private enterprise, it has become a necessity within the reach of everybody. Where once a business had but one telephone with a limited talking range, today that business has service with a range three-quarters of a continent broad, and every branch of every business is linked to every other by an intercommunicating telephone system.

The telephone has earned its responsible place and there are now 6,000,000 Bell telephones in this country, over which go 25,000,000 talks daily.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station.
